

Patrol Leaders Council Meeting
September 30, 2007

Present: Scott Chalmers, Tony Lugo-Caruso, Brant Birrenkott, Joseph Hovel, Michael Fay, Drew Birrenkott, Mr. Chalmers

Opening

Scott has nothing to report; Tony has nothing to report; Michael has nothing to report; Joseph says the last meeting was okay.

Michael thinks we need something more to do in the patrol meeting. Michael says if there is one person going to a camp out to join another patrol. Scott says maybe we can make camp outs more fun. Brant says that meetings are going well, and he thinks that some people are making it bad. Scott says we should make meetings more fun. Mr. Chalmers says that patrols should make stories.

Old Business

Camporee- Tony and Michael said it was fun.
Family Fest – Joseph said it was fun.

Other

Patrol meeting- Michael says that since there are only three people going to the next campout, they should do a cheer instead of doing nothing.

Mr. Chalmers says that you should work for the National Honor Patrol. We have not had a patrol win it yet. It would be fun.

Games

Patrols should be planning games that should have something to do with the theme of the month.
