

Patrol Leaders Council Meeting
October 28, 2007

Present: Scott Chalmers, Chris Virtue, Brant Birrenkott, Evan Chalmers, Tony Lugo-Caruso, Michael Fay, Joseph Hovel, Mr. Chalmers

Reports

Scott says uh; Tony has nothing to report. Chris has nothing to report. Brant thinks the meetings are going good. Michael says it has been going ok. Evan has nothing to report.

Scott says there will be the Order of the Arrow Chapter meeting on November 7, at Church of Latter Day Saints. Tony says good. Evan says the number one problem is attendance.

Old Business

Portage camporee: Everyone says was fun.

Brant says we should bring back the padlocks so things don't get messed in the patrol boxes.

NO GAME IF THEY ARE MAKING THE MEETING LONGER.

Michael says that we should have more discipline.

Mr. Chalmers says that having no game will stop people coming but we should use the scout sign to make them be quiet.

New Business

Chris says that we should have a survival campout.

Locks on patrol boxes pros and cons:

Pros-- It is something to play around with. Chris thinks that it would be good so people don't take from other patrol boxes.

Cons—Joseph thinks that people will lose them and people don't like them.

Meetings in November

November 5th

Opening-Sparks

Patrol meetings-plan a yell and story or other

Skills inst-cooking and how to light a fire

Activity-burn the string with the fire

Close-Sparks

Take down-Everyone

November 19th

Setup-everyone

Opening-Apples

Patrol meeting- yell, stories, flag, other

Skills inst-make reflector ovens

Activity-Go cook on them

Closing-Apples

Take down- all